

The New England Board of Higher Education's Tuition Break, the Regional Student Program (RSP), provides savings on out-of-state tuition to eligible residents of the New England states when they attend out-of-state public colleges and universities in New England and enroll in programs made available by those colleges through the RSP.

- The average annual tuition savings provided by the RSP is $8,000. Actual savings varies by college, and can be as high as $13,000 per year.
- Visit nebhe.org/tuitionbreak for detailed information.
- Eligible state residents: Connecticut (CT), Maine (ME), Massachusetts (MA), New Hampshire (NH), Rhode Island (RI), and Vermont (VT) State abbreviation indicates which state's residents are eligible for each program.
- More than 2,000 undergraduate and graduate degree programs in all areas of study are available through NEBHE's program. The college(s) listed offers the program with tuition savings through the RSP.
The list below provides examples of programs, which are related to biomedical science fields.

Tuition Break by the numbers: 2019-2020 academic year

9,257 participating students

$63.5 million in total savings

$8,000 average savings per student

Example
In-State Tuition	$10,000
Out-of-State Tuition	$23,000
Tuition Break Savings	$8,000
Tuition Break Tuition	$15,000

What makes a program eligible?

- Programs are voluntarily offered by public colleges and universities that are outside a student's home state –within New England.
- Participating colleges and universities approve program offerings through an Annual Review.
- Every September NEBHE publishes a list of programs approved for the following academic year

How to apply?

- Choose a program offered through Tuition Break.
- Complete the admissions application to the college that offers the program and declare that program as your major.
- Once accepted, confirm your status with the college.
